

Guardians of SJO Legacy

St. Jude RNs standing up for "Our Excellence, Our Hospital, Our Choice"! St. Joe Orange and Mission RNs join in solidarity. Sorry CNA, you might have better luck playing Powerball.

Mission Nurses Who Care

The CNA union has retreated from their unsuccessful organizing attempt at St. Joseph, so now they are focusing their efforts towards St. Jude. The St. Jude RNs are now respectfully asking the CNA to leave (and to stop chasing their nurses around the salad bar) so they can take their cafeteria back and have uninterrupted meal breaks once again. Go St. Jude!
